Kathmandu, March 1: Representatives of political parties and well-wishers from different countries are expected to arrive here to attend the imminent 13th General Convention of the Nepali Congress scheduled for March 3 to 6.

Chief of the Nepali Congress International Department, Sujata Koirala, said that Chief Minister of Bihar state, India Nitish Kumar, the Communications Minister of Bangladesh Hasanul Haq Inu and the general secretary of the Socialist International Luis Ayala, among other dignitaries are attending the General Convention.

She said the leaders of the political parties from Laos, Cambodia and India have also informed the NC of their participation in the general convention. The vice-president of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) Bhagat Singh Koshiyari, leaders of the Indian communist parties as well as Nepali Congress well-wishers will arrive Kathmandu for the event, Koirala added.
