RESOLUTION ON REFUGEES

Original: Spanish

The Council of the Socialist International meeting in the headquarters of the United Nations in New York on 11-12 July 2017, expresses its support and solidarity with refugees all over the world.

Considering the thousands of lives lost, especially children and women who through refuge are searching for an alternative to the conflicts and wars in their travels, either by land or sea;

Considering the situation of innumerable citizens in refugee camps all over the world, suffering misery and hunger.

Expresses through its Council its certainty that all refugees are “citizens of the world” and as such they deserve priority.

Reaffirms its commitment to care, protection and support in this inhuman situation that confronts the world.
